SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. Madame TSAI Ting-kai left Hong Kong for Communist-held areas in March, on the same ship with Madame LI Chi-shen and Madame LIAO Chung-kai (HO Hsiang-ning) and some two hundred others.* She had been urged by her husband to sell their house in Hong Kong and go north immediately, and departed hastily leaving the house unsold.
2. Shortly before leaving Hong Kong, Madame LIAO Chung-kai** stated that the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) had sent advice urging that all party members and sympathizers who did not have pressing business in Hong Kong should go north immediately, since it appeared that a third world war was going to begin in the near future.*** She had previously discounted the threat of international war, but was impressed by this warning.

** See [REDACTED]

25X1A *** [REDACTED] Comment. While it is quite possible that the threat of imminent war was used as a device to persuade members and fellow-travelers to go north, [REDACTED] the CCP is in fact convinced that conflict on an international scale is at hand.
